Application for Deferral

This form is to be completed if you are requesting for a deferral from a course. This is to be submitted to the head of campus and is subject to approval.

Deferment is only available to academically successful students, not those that are not meeting attendance or course assessment requirements. Student must have a verifiable and significant medical condition that precludes them from attending class. The College could, in exceptional circumstances, consider other reasons to grant deferment.

Terms of deferral

Please refer to Q Academy's deferral policy listed in the student handbook; this is available for download from the website

Please read each term of deferment and tick against them	Please tick
Q Academy is required to report to Centrelink when a student ceases study, this will impact any payments. You must also report this change to centrelink immediately.
The maximum deferment period is six (6) months from the "date of application".
If the student does not return to the course within 6 months from the course deferment date, the student is deemed to have 'abandoned the course' and forfeits the total course fee.
When returning to study the student must either restart at the point of departure, or in the first lesson of the respective module. Placement is subject to availability.
The student will be required to reuse any materials originally provided – Workbooks & student shirts, oil and bottles. If the course material has been updated, new course material can be purchased at listed cost.
